SALTWATER BUSSELTON

Saltwater Busselton is nearing completion and the countdown has commenced to the highly anticipated opening of Australia's newest convention centre and performing arts venue.

This sophisticated, multi-purpose venue has been masterfully designed to host business events, entertainment and exhibitions over three levels of easily convertible, contemporary spaces.

Situated in the CBD, Saltwater is just a short stroll from the iconic Busselton Jetty and the Foreshore Precinct's premium accommodation, restaurants, bars and attractions.

BUSSELTON

Renowned as the Events Capital of Western Australia, Busselton is a flourishing coastal destination in the heart of the magnificent Margaret River Wine Region.

Busselton is a beautiful seaside resort town with a wide range of accommodation, fine wine, quality produce, cultural experiences, fascinating history, inspired art, world-class attractions, towering tuart forests, flora and fauna just waiting to be discovered.

Naturally, there are plenty of opportunities for delegates to combine business and pleasure here in the world-renowned Margaret River Region.

Saltwater was named after the Wadandi (Saltwater People) who are the Traditional Owners of the Country (Undalup) on which this new convention centre and performing arts venue is located.

The City of Busselton acknowledges the Traditional Owners, the Wadandi People, their deep connection to the land and their artistic and cultural expressions. We pay our respects to our ancestors, for bringing us here together, and to our Elders and emerging leaders carrying the cultural flame.
